Dear Mr. Whyrick,

In reply to the Federal Election Commission letter dated June 18th and my subsequent conversion concerning Amended Year End Report (7/01-12/31/01), dated 3/11/02 and April Quarterly Report (1/1/02-3/31/02). As discussed and written - "A response or amendment to your original report(s)...should be filed within fifteen days..." This written reply is being provided as 2002 election cycle has not reached the $50,000 threshold mandating electronic filing.

The loan of $23,320 is one and the same for the Amended Year End Report (7/01-12/31/01), dated 3/11/02 and April Quarterly Report (1/1/02-3/31/02).

Prior to these reports, I had made inquiry to FEC concerning the campaign loan rollover for the 2002 election. During our discussion, the FEC advised me that the contributions and debts of 2000 should have been zero commencing January 1, 2001.

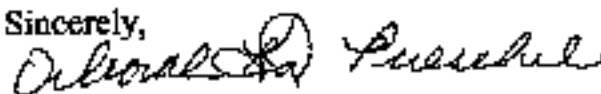

With this information, since the contributions and debts are zero out commencing January 1, 2001. I believe that the rollover loan should reflect the new election cycle if the candidate is an active candidate. Basically, this is similar to refinancing loans such as mortgages as well as certificate of savings maturing and converting.

I am suggesting that loans guaranteed by the candidate should be a separate form and titled: Schedule C-1 Loans Guaranteed by Candidate/Repayment of Personal Funds and Original Amount of Loan and Terms have several entries and not one.

Furthermore, my treasurer is on vacation; therefore, I might have to file and sign the Mid-Year July per the FEC instructions.

Your time and cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
